Major Defect - 20 days after Government notification.
c. Minor Defect - Interim response optional. d. Informational - No interim response required.
The interim responseshall provide the status of the Contractors investigation, and proposed date for submission of the final response. The interim status shall be updated every 30 days subsequent to the initial submission of the interim response. The TACOM CARB members may agree with the Contractor to extend or modify the time period for subsequent interim responses.
Final Responses: Final responses are required for all TIRs (Critical, Major, and Minor), within forty five (45) calendar days after receipt unless modified as stated above. The Contractor shall provide responses to all "informational" TIRs if those reports identify any shortcoming, deficiency, and/or any non-compliance with the specification or contractual requirements. The Contractor will indicate the corrective action status, either "Final" or "Interim," on each FACAR. The Corrective Action Review Board (CARB) shall evaluate each FACAR and determine if it is closed or open. The Government will provide the closure criteria for those FACARs
